CENTRAL INTELLEBUCK AGENCY INFORMATION REPORT CD NO 25X1A OUNTRY USSR (Greathian SSR) UBJECT Emeropertrowsk Airfield 25X1A ACC. CQUIRE ATE OF AT		CONFIDENT Approyed For Release 2002/ 08/08	3⊡CIA-RD P82-00457	R007000240005-7	¹³ 2551£
UBJECT Dragorope trovek Airfield 25X1A LACE 25X1A 25X1A AND OF PAGES 1 NO. OF PAGES		SECTION 1	MIFOREAUTUI	, I	26
UNIFECT Despreparations asset No. OF PAGES 1 LACE		information	REPORT	CD NO 2	25X1A
25X1A SUPPLEMENT TO 25X1X REPORT NO. 1. The simfield is about 10 im south-southeast of Backropoknowsk (10°2711/30°2711/30°27°1), threinian 1,5.2°, between the Deep River and the highest to Zapurcentys (10°19'81/30°11'8), a retired the real along the rectural border of the field.  triangulation point, shout 15 inters high, complexity of vocden boson stranged 130°0 a gyretide, was just vect of the field, north of the rethread scruting. The kolkinos fields surrounding the field north orthin rethread scruting. The kolkinos fields surrounding the field north orthin rethread scruting. The kolkinos fields surrounding the field north orthin rethread scruting. The kolkinos fields surrounding the field over lovel, $2. 3. About 9 to 2 single-congine figitore, some bylenes and small cliders were seen from a distance. He construction work was in progress at the field was respected figitor, and those to five gilder were seen from a distance. He construction work was in progress at the field of a long, whereas in 1059, as many as 30 or he single-engine figitor, and those to five gilders were seen from a first field as with a careful retrieve and the second of the field with a winding figitor of the weather was good, he fighter were seen from fights under the second the attract was good, he fighter with a careful retress from the working fights under the second through the fights under the second the attract was good, he fighter were now become some fixed at each other and the first from executive values could be seen. John missions with searchlitte, he or behave a was continued by the other sources. 3. Descript, For slatch of similates see many. The attract subject of the field is probably they first from executive and the first promoted property to the new first property to the first seed of the field is probably they first first to solve the first property. The first property to the first seed of similar was a contracted by the other sources. 3. North first with many first on the first seed of the first seed of the f	POLIKITOV IISS	R (Merajuian SSR)		UATE DISTR	18 February 195
25X1A SUPPLEMENT TO 25X1X REPORT NO. 1. The simfield is about 10 im south-southeast of Backropoknowsk (10°2711/30°2711/30°27°1), threinian 1,5.2°, between the Deep River and the highest to Zapurcentys (10°19'81/30°11'8), a retired the real along the rectural border of the field.  triangulation point, shout 15 inters high, complexity of vocden boson stranged 130°0 a gyretide, was just vect of the field, north of the rethread scruting. The kolkinos fields surrounding the field north orthin rethread scruting. The kolkinos fields surrounding the field north orthin rethread scruting. The kolkinos fields surrounding the field north orthin rethread scruting. The kolkinos fields surrounding the field over lovel, $2. 3. About 9 to 2 single-congine figitore, some bylenes and small cliders were seen from a distance. He construction work was in progress at the field was respected figitor, and those to five gilder were seen from a distance. He construction work was in progress at the field of a long, whereas in 1059, as many as 30 or he single-engine figitor, and those to five gilders were seen from a first field as with a careful retrieve and the second of the field with a winding figitor of the weather was good, he fighter were seen from fights under the second the attract was good, he fighter with a careful retress from the working fights under the second through the fights under the second the attract was good, he fighter were now become some fixed at each other and the first from executive values could be seen. John missions with searchlitte, he or behave a was continued by the other sources. 3. Descript, For slatch of similates see many. The attract subject of the field is probably they first from executive and the first promoted property to the new first property to the first seed of the field is probably they first first to solve the first property. The first property to the first seed of similar was a contracted by the other sources. 3. North first with many first on the first seed of the first seed of the f		rematrovsk Airfield	" 10 C/N	NO. OF PAGES	1.
25X1A SUPPLEMENT TO 25X1X REPORT NO. 1. The simfield is about 10 im south-southeast of Backropoknowsk (10°2711/30°2711/30°27°1), threinian 1,5.2°, between the Deep River and the highest to Zapurcentys (10°19'81/30°11'8), a retired the real along the rectural border of the field.  triangulation point, shout 15 inters high, complexity of vocden boson stranged 130°0 a gyretide, was just vect of the field, north of the rethread scruting. The kolkinos fields surrounding the field north orthin rethread scruting. The kolkinos fields surrounding the field north orthin rethread scruting. The kolkinos fields surrounding the field north orthin rethread scruting. The kolkinos fields surrounding the field over lovel, $2. 3. About 9 to 2 single-congine figitore, some bylenes and small cliders were seen from a distance. He construction work was in progress at the field was respected figitor, and those to five gilder were seen from a distance. He construction work was in progress at the field of a long, whereas in 1059, as many as 30 or he single-engine figitor, and those to five gilders were seen from a first field as with a careful retrieve and the second of the field with a winding figitor of the weather was good, he fighter were seen from fights under the second the attract was good, he fighter with a careful retress from the working fights under the second through the fights under the second the attract was good, he fighter were now become some fixed at each other and the first from executive values could be seen. John missions with searchlitte, he or behave a was continued by the other sources. 3. Descript, For slatch of similates see many. The attract subject of the field is probably they first from executive and the first promoted property to the new first property to the first seed of the field is probably they first first to solve the first property. The first property to the first seed of similar was a contracted by the other sources. 3. North first with many first on the first seed of the first seed of the f		25X1A RETU		NO OF FRIOLO	1
SUPPLEMENT TO 25X1X REPORT NO. 1. The airfield is about 10 km south-southcast of Decompositions (160% 14/2) 1509 18, Unwinten 15.8 1, between the Decomposition and the highway to Expected by (17/19/4/19/30114). A reflored line was along the recturn the State of the Stale. In triangulation woint, about 15 toters high, considering of weeden became arranged like a pyractic, was just not of the field. South of the field was remarked like a pyractic, was just not of the field earth of the reflected variance. The Kalkhos fields surrounding the field was reported in earth works, probably a fuel dump, and one realineast over of the bield. The buildings east of the field, here buildings east of the field, here buildings east of the field were seen from a distance. We construction work was in progress at the field was seen from a distance. We construction work was in progress at the field earling amount of the field with the field was seen from a distance. We construction work was in progress at the field earling before the field with	PLACE ACQUIREI			NO. OF ENGLS.
1. The airfield is about 10 km south-southeast of Inopropositional (16027711/360918), Usrainian 5.5.2., between the Deep River and the highest to Zameroshiye (1761914/350118). A resilved Line rea along the western border of the field. A triangulation point, about 15 inters high, construing of weeden beams swanged like a present, was just west of the field, were lovel. ? 2. One repair hanger, some temperary buildings, some aphinterproof revariants and function in the field were lovel. ? 2. One repair hanger, some temperary buildings, some aphinterproof revariants and function in the workers of receiving a fuel damp, and one readso assivered and function of the workers of a distance. We construction work was in progress at the field were seen from a distance. We construction work was in progress at the field are seen from a distance. We construction work was in progress at the field are likely and the field were seen from a distance when we have a governed the field in 1917, whenever in 1919, as many as 30 or 10 single-engine fig there, locating monoplance with in-line loved the intens at the function of the working in the sweather fire from a love at the first and line fig and over the first with monipal line, and made to fire distance when the first alice and line and the first alice and first first with nonlinear first first with a first at each office of the street and and profit of the sweather which money the formation flights usually did not constant the first from above the way of the first at each office at each office at each office at each office at the first at each office at the first at each office at each office at each office at each office at the first at each office at the first at each office at each office at the first at each office at each office and the provided (1002814/350071); which is known. I far field on the plateous much of valueskeys (18718/19790712). 2. The places first of the field is probably thanyo (18718/19790712). 2. The places first of the field is probably thanyo (18718/	DATE OF		25X1X
Zapovokiya (1/04) N/3501/10). A reilroad Line was along the vectors border of the field. * triangulation point, about 15 neters high, consisting of worden beams arranged like a granted, was just word of the field, north of the railroad verninus. The Kelkhoz fields surrounding the field were level. * 2. One repair hanger, some temperary brildings, some splinterproof reventments and fenced-the earth works, probably a fuel dump, and one radio mast were on the wortern or northwestern edge of the field. Three buildings east of the field were seen from a distance. No construction work was in progress at the field were seen from a distance. No construction work was in progress at the field, "Three buildings east of the field were seen from a distance, who construction work was in progress at the field.  3. About 9 to 12 single-engine fighters, some biplames and small gliders were seen seen the field in 1917, whereas in 1919, as nawy as 30 or 10 single-engine fighters, low-wing monoplanes with in-thic engines, wide wings at the fuse-large and oval tiple practiced firing, and three to five gliders were seen flying in the evening. If the weather was 1902, the fighters also made might flights usually did not enced two we three, but once numbered four. The planes fired at each other and the fire from elvereft making might foraction flights usually did not enced two we three, but once numbered four. The planes fired at each other and the fire from elvereft making might foraction flights usually did not enced two we three, but once numbered four. The planes fired at each other and the fire from elvereft wasponn could be seen, some missions with searchlights, An or bonber units were not observed.   Comment. For sketch of airvield, see innex. The decide shows that this is the field in probably Staryo Taydeki (1,8023 14/75007 18).  Comment. The two homesers and one large multi-story building were pre-fraintly reported.  Comment. First two homesers and one large multi-story building were pre-fraintly reported	4FO		20/(1/(TEI OTT TO	The second of th
Zapovokiya (1/04) N/3501/10). A reilroad Line was along the vectors border of the field. * triangulation point, about 15 neters high, consisting of worden beams arranged like a granted, was just word of the field, north of the railroad verninus. The Kelkhoz fields surrounding the field were level. * 2. One repair hanger, some temperary brildings, some splinterproof reventments and fenced-the earth works, probably a fuel dump, and one radio mast were on the wortern or northwestern edge of the field. Three buildings east of the field were seen from a distance. No construction work was in progress at the field were seen from a distance. No construction work was in progress at the field, "Three buildings east of the field were seen from a distance, who construction work was in progress at the field.  3. About 9 to 12 single-engine fighters, some biplames and small gliders were seen seen the field in 1917, whereas in 1919, as nawy as 30 or 10 single-engine fighters, low-wing monoplanes with in-thic engines, wide wings at the fuse-large and oval tiple practiced firing, and three to five gliders were seen flying in the evening. If the weather was 1902, the fighters also made might flights usually did not enced two we three, but once numbered four. The planes fired at each other and the fire from elvereft making might foraction flights usually did not enced two we three, but once numbered four. The planes fired at each other and the fire from elvereft making might foraction flights usually did not enced two we three, but once numbered four. The planes fired at each other and the fire from elvereft wasponn could be seen, some missions with searchlights, An or bonber units were not observed.   Comment. For sketch of airvield, see innex. The decide shows that this is the field in probably Staryo Taydeki (1,8023 14/75007 18).  Comment. The two homesers and one large multi-story building were pre-fraintly reported.  Comment. First two homesers and one large multi-story building were pre-fraintly reported			25X1X	REPORT NO.	And the same of th Zaporoshys (1/74) W/35011-D). A reilroad Line was along the vectors Experimenty (1/74) W/35011-D). A reilroad Line was along the vectors border of the field. * triangulation point, about 15 noters high, consisting of worden beams arranged like a pyranid, was just word of the field, north of the reilroad terminus. The Kelkhos fields surrounding the field were level. * 2. One repair hanger, some temperary buildings, some splinterproof reventments and fenced-in earth works, probably a fuel dump, and one radio mast were end the western or northwestern edge of the field. Three buildings east of the field were seen from a distance. No construction work was in progress at the field.  3. About 9 to 12 single-engine fighters, some biplames and small gliders were seen at the field in 19h7, whereas in 19h9, as nawy as 30 or h0 single-engine fighters, low-wing monoplanes with in-line engines, wide wings at the fuse-last and oval tips practiced firing, and three to five gliders were seen flaying in the evening. If the weather was good, the fighters also made night flights with navigation lights on. The number of wherefit making night formation flights usually did not exceed two or three, but once numbered four. The plames fixed at each other and the fixe from eitereft wasponn could be seen, Joint missions with searchlights, his or bender units were not observed.   Doment. For sketch of airchield, see innex. The sketch shows that this is the field on the platean north of Voloskeye (h0-18 m/3509/m).  Doment. For sketch of airchield, see innex. The sketch shows that this is known. A few details on the field were previously reported by the other course of the field is probably Starye Expedicit (h0-23 m/3509/m).  Comment. The true homeners and one large multi-story building were previously reported.  Comment. The true homeners and one large multi-story building were previously reported.  Comment. The true homeners and one large multi-story building were previously with a skeach of the field is probably Zapovokiya (1/04) N/3501/10). A reilroad Line was along the vectors border of the field. * triangulation point, about 15 neters high, consisting of worden beams arranged like a granted, was just word of the field, north of the railroad verninus. The Kelkhoz fields surrounding the field were level. * 2. One repair hanger, some temperary brildings, some splinterproof reventments and fenced-the earth works, probably a fuel dump, and one radio mast were on the wortern or northwestern edge of the field. Three buildings east of the field were seen from a distance. No construction work was in progress at the field were seen from a distance. No construction work was in progress at the field, "Three buildings east of the field were seen from a distance, who construction work was in progress at the field.  3. About 9 to 12 single-engine fighters, some biplames and small gliders were seen seen the field in 1917, whereas in 1919, as nawy as 30 or 10 single-engine fighters, low-wing monoplanes with in-thic engines, wide wings at the fuse-large and oval tiple practiced firing, and three to five gliders were seen flying in the evening. If the weather was 1902, the fighters also made might flights usually did not enced two we three, but once numbered four. The planes fired at each other and the fire from elvereft making might foraction flights usually did not enced two we three, but once numbered four. The planes fired at each other and the fire from elvereft making might foraction flights usually did not enced two we three, but once numbered four. The planes fired at each other and the fire from elvereft wasponn could be seen, some missions with searchlights, An or bonber units were not observed.   Comment. For sketch of airvield, see innex. The decide shows that this is the field in probably Staryo Taydeki (1,8023 14/75007 18).  Comment. The two homesers and one large multi-story building were pre-fraintly reported.  Comment. First two homesers and one large multi-story building were pre-fraintly reported Zapuroskiye (1974) M/35011.D. A realwood Line was along the vectors bender of the field.  triangulation points, about 15 noters high, consisting of wooden beams arranged like a pywards, was just wort of the field, north of the realroad terminus. The Kelkhoz fields surrounding the field were level.  2. One repair hanger, some temperary buildings, some splinterproof reventments and fenced-the earth works, probably a fuel dump, and one radio mast were of the western or northwestern edge of the field. Three buildings east of the field were seen from a distance. No construction work was in progress at the field.  3. About 9 to 12 single-engine fighters, some biplames and small gliders were seen at the field in 19h7, whereas in 19h9, as many as 30 or ho single-engine fighters, low-wing monolance with in-line engines, wide wings at the fuse-last and oval tips practiced firing, and three to five gliders were seen flying in the evening. If the weather was good, the fighters also made might flights with navigation lights can. The number of sirvereft making might for action flights usually did not exceed two or three, but once numbered four. The plames fired at each other and the fire from circurst was pound on the scene field as probably scarce in the fire from circurst was pound on the scene other sources.  Domment. For sketch of airvivid, see innex. The sketch shows that this is the field on the plateau north of voloskeye (h0-18 m/3500/m).  Domment. For sketch of airvivid, see innex. The sketch shows that this is the field in probably scarce (h0-18 m/3500/m).  Domment. For hammars and one large multi-story building were pre-fraintly reported.  Domment. The two hammars and one large multi-story building were pre-fraintly reported.  Domment. The two hammars and one large multi-story building were pre-fraintly reported.  Distribution Distribution  Classification Distribution  And             * Zapuroshiye (1/19) wi/3501101. A realroad Line was along the western Lapuroshiye (1/19) wi/3501101. A realroad Line was along the western border of the field.  triangulation point, about 15 inters high, consisting of wooden beams arranged like a pymend, was just wort of the field, north of the realroad terminus. The Kelkhoz fields surrounding the field were loved.  2. One repair hanger, some temperary buildings, some splinterproof reventments and fenced-in earth works, probably a fuel dump, and one radio mast were on the western or northwestern edge of the field. Three buildings east of the field were seen from a distance. We construction work was in progress at the field, at the field of the field of the field of the field. Three buildings east of the field were seen from a distance. We construction work was in progress at the field.  3. About 9 to 12 single-engine fighters, some bip ames and small gliders were seen field.  3. About 9 to 12 single-engine fighters, some bip ames and small gliders were seen fighters, low-wing monoplance with in-line ongines, wide wings at the fuse-lazy and oval tips practiced firing, and three to five gliders were seen flying in the evening. If the weather was good, the fighters also made night flights usually did not enseed the or three, but once majered four. The planes fired at each other and the fire from circurst weapons could be seen, John missions with searchlights, An or bomber units were not observed.  4. ****
Zapuroshiye (1/19) wi/3501101. A realroad Line was along the western Lapuroshiye (1/19) wi/3501101. A realroad Line was along the western border of the field.  triangulation point, about 15 inters high, consisting of wooden beams arranged like a pymend, was just wort of the field, north of the realroad terminus. The Kelkhoz fields surrounding the field were loved.  2. One repair hanger, some temperary buildings, some splinterproof reventments and fenced-in earth works, probably a fuel dump, and one radio mast were on the western or northwestern edge of the field. Three buildings east of the field were seen from a distance. We construction work was in progress at the field, at the field of the field of the field of the field. Three buildings east of the field were seen from a distance. We construction work was in progress at the field.  3. About 9 to 12 single-engine fighters, some bip ames and small gliders were seen field.  3. About 9 to 12 single-engine fighters, some bip ames and small gliders were seen fighters, low-wing monoplance with in-line ongines, wide wings at the fuse-lazy and oval tips practiced firing, and three to five gliders were seen flying in the evening. If the weather was good, the fighters also made night flights usually did not enseed the or three, but once majered four. The planes fired at each other and the fire from circurst weapons could be seen, John missions with searchlights, An or bomber units were not observed.  4. ****
Zapuroskiye (1974) M/35011.D. A realwood Line was along the vectors bender of the field.  triangulation points, about 15 noters high, consisting of wooden beams arranged like a pywards, was just wort of the field, north of the realroad terminus. The Kelkhoz fields surrounding the field were level.  2. One repair hanger, some temperary buildings, some splinterproof reventments and fenced-the earth works, probably a fuel dump, and one radio mast were of the western or northwestern edge of the field. Three buildings east of the field were seen from a distance. No construction work was in progress at the field.  3. About 9 to 12 single-engine fighters, some biplames and small gliders were seen at the field in 19h7, whereas in 19h9, as many as 30 or ho single-engine fighters, low-wing monolance with in-line engines, wide wings at the fuse-last and oval tips practiced firing, and three to five gliders were seen flying in the evening. If the weather was good, the fighters also made might flights with navigation lights can. The number of sirvereft making might for action flights usually did not exceed two or three, but once numbered four. The plames fired at each other and the fire from circurst was pound on the scene field as probably scarce in the fire from circurst was pound on the scene other sources.  Domment. For sketch of airvivid, see innex. The sketch shows that this is the field on the plateau north of voloskeye (h0-18 m/3500/m).  Domment. For sketch of airvivid, see innex. The sketch shows that this is the field in probably scarce (h0-18 m/3500/m).  Domment. For hammars and one large multi-story building were pre-fraintly reported.  Domment. The two hammars and one large multi-story building were pre-fraintly reported.  Domment. The two hammars and one large multi-story building were pre-fraintly reported.  Distribution Distribution  Classification Distribution  And             * Zapuroskiye (1974) M/35011.D. A realwood Line was along the vectors bender of the field.  triangulation points, about 15 noters high, consisting of wooden beams arranged like a pywards, was just wort of the field, north of the realroad terminus. The Kelkhoz fields surrounding the field were level.  2. One repair hanger, some temperary buildings, some splinterproof reventments and fenced-the earth works, probably a fuel dump, and one radio mast were of the western or northwestern edge of the field. Three buildings east of the field were seen from a distance. No construction work was in progress at the field.  3. About 9 to 12 single-engine fighters, some biplames and small gliders were seen at the field in 19h7, whereas in 19h9, as many as 30 or ho single-engine fighters, low-wing monolance with in-line engines, wide wings at the fuse-last and oval tips practiced firing, and three to five gliders were seen flying in the evening. If the weather was good, the fighters also made might flights with navigation lights can. The number of sirvereft making might for action flights usually did not exceed two or three, but once numbered four. The plames fired at each other and the fire from circurst was pound on the scene field as probably scarce in the fire from circurst was pound on the scene other sources.  Domment. For sketch of airvivid, see innex. The sketch shows that this is the field on the plateau north of voloskeye (h0-18 m/3500/m).  Domment. For sketch of airvivid, see innex. The sketch shows that this is the field in probably scarce (h0-18 m/3500/m).  Domment. For hammars and one large multi-story building were pre-fraintly reported.  Domment. The two hammars and one large multi-story building were pre-fraintly reported.  Domment. The two hammars and one large multi-story building were pre-fraintly reported.  Distribution Distribution  Classification Distribution  And             * Zapovakiya (1/74)-1/3501119. A realwood kine was along the western border of the field. * triangulation point, about 15 leters high, consisting of wooden beams arranged like a gymental, was just wort of the field, north of the realroad terminus. The Kelkhoz fields surrounding the field were level. * 2. One repair hanger, some temperary buildings, some splinterproof reventments and fenced-tin earth works, probably a fuel dump, and one radio mast were on the western or northwestern edge of the field. Three buildings east of the field were seen from a distance. No construction work was in progress at the field.  3. About 9 to 12 single-engine fighters, some biplanes and small gliders were seen at the field in 19h7, whereas in 19h9, as many as 30 or ho single-engine fighters, low-wing monoplanes with in-line engines, wide wings at the fuse-last and oval tips practiced firing, and three to five gliders were seen flying in the evening. If the weather was good, the fighters also made night flights usually did not exceed two or three, but once numbered four. The planes fired at each other and the fire from eitereft making might for action flights usually did not exceed two or three, but once numbered four. The planes fired at each other and the fire from eitereft masponn could be seen, John missions with searchlights, he are bonber units were not observed. *** **** **** **** **** *** ***
Zapuroshiye (1/19) wi/3501101. A realroad Line was along the western Lapuroshiye (1/19) wi/3501101. A realroad Line was along the western border of the field.  triangulation point, about 15 inters high, consisting of wooden beams arranged like a pymend, was just wort of the field, north of the realroad terminus. The Kelkhoz fields surrounding the field were loved.  2. One repair hanger, some temperary buildings, some splinterproof reventments and fenced-in earth works, probably a fuel dump, and one radio mast were on the western or northwestern edge of the field. Three buildings east of the field were seen from a distance. We construction work was in progress at the field, at the field of the field of the field of the field. Three buildings east of the field were seen from a distance. We construction work was in progress at the field.  3. About 9 to 12 single-engine fighters, some bip ames and small gliders were seen field.  3. About 9 to 12 single-engine fighters, some bip ames and small gliders were seen fighters, low-wing monoplance with in-line ongines, wide wings at the fuse-lazy and oval tips practiced firing, and three to five gliders were seen flying in the evening. If the weather was good, the fighters also made night flights usually did not enseed the or three, but once majered four. The planes fired at each other and the fire from circurst weapons could be seen, John missions with searchlights, An or bomber units were not observed.  4. *			A P F	- among the reserve ()	.003mm/
Lapurcahiya (1769-1735-01-18). A restroad thin was study the such border of the field. * triangulation point, about 15 noters high, consisting of worden beams arranged like a pyratid, was just word of the field, north of the relicoed verming. The Kelkhoz fields surrounding the field were level. * 2. One repair hanger, some temperary buildings, some splinterproof reventments and function earth works, probably a fuel dump, and one radio mast were on the wordern or northwestern edge of the field. Three buildings east of the field were seen from a distance. We construction work was in progress at the field. * 3. About 9 to 12 single-engine fighters, some biplanes and small gliders were seen at the field in 19h7, whereas in 19h9, as many as 30 or h0 single-engine fighters, low-wing monoblanes with in-line engines, wide wings at the fuse-lay and oval tips practiced firing, and three to five gliders were seen flying in the evening. If the weather was good, the fighters also made aignt flights with navigation higher on. The maker of whose made four. The planes fixed at each other and the fire from element making might for action flights usually did not enced two or three, but once numbered four. The planes fixed at each other and the fire from element wasponn could be seen. Joint missions with searchlights, Ah or bomber units were not observed.  Comment. For sketch of airfield, see times. The sketch shows that this is the field in probably Staryo Hayded (18923-18/3509-12), which is known. A few details on the field were previously reported by the other sources. See the field is probably Staryo Hayded (18923-18/3509-12). Comment. For sketch of airfield, see times. The willing entered on the sketch other sources. So northeest of the field is probably Staryo Hayded (18923-18/3509-12). Comment. For sketch of airfield see times. The charge in class of the field is probably Staryo Hayded (18923-18/3509-12). Comment. For sketch of airfield see times. The charge in class of the field see the field see the field	1.	SIND TO THE THOUGHT STORY IN CO	THE CALL THE PARTIES AND ACT	ACT CITY DOWN TOWN	,,,,,,,,,,,,,,,,,,,,,,,,,,,,,,,,,,,,,,, sisting of wooden beams stranged like a pyratho, was just most of the field were lovel. * 2. One repair hanger, some temperary buildings, some splinterproof restments and fenced-in earth works, probably a fuel dump, and one radio mast were on the western or northwestern edge of the field. Three buildings east of the field were seen from a distance. We construction work was in progress at the field in 1917, whereas in 1919, as many as 30 or 10 single-engine fighters, low-wing monoltane with in-line engines, wide wings at the fuselegs and oval tips practiced firing, and three to five gliders were seen flying in the evening. If the weather was joud, the fighters also made night flights with navigation lights on. The number of aircraft making night formation flights usually did not enced two or three, but once numbered four. The places fixed at each other and the first from aircraft waspons could be seen. Joint missions with searchlights, An or bomber units were not observed.  Comment. For sketch of airfield, see linex. The sketch shows that this is the field on the plateau north of Valoskeye (18518 W/35091E), which is known. A few details on the field were previously reported by the other sources. Comment. The two houses and one large multi-story building were previously reported. The validage entered on the sketch previously reported by the houses and orthography which is a sea or the field is probably Staryo Exyded (18528 W/35007E). COMPIDENT: CLASSIFICATION SCHEP!/CONTROL/US OFFICIALS CREAT 25X1 Auth. Williams Distribution Resement Ec. Schenge is blass. 25X1 Auth. Williams Resement Ec. 23 Auth. Williams Resement Ec. 23 Auth. Williams 25X1 Auth. Williams Element Ec. 25X1 Auth. Williams Element Ec. 25X1 Element Ec. 25X1 Element Elemen	•	a	a real recent time	wan along one no	217 0077 77
our hout the railroad terminus. The Kelkhoz Halas surfamilia was term were lovel, * 2. One repair hanger, some temperary buildings, some splinterproof revenuents and funced—in earth works, probably a fuel dump, and one radio mast were of the fold were seen from a distance. We construction work was in progress at the field were seen from a distance. We construction work was in progress at the field in 1917, whereas in 1919, as many as 30 or left single-engine fighters, lost-wing monoplanes with in-line engines, wide wings at the fuse-lag; and oval tips practiced firing, and three to five gliders were seen flying in the evening. If the weather was good, the fighters also made about flights usually did not encode two or three, but once numbered four. The planes fired at each other and the fire from atternft wasponn could be seen. Joint missions with searchlights, An or bomber units were not observed.  Comment. For sketch of airfield, see mask. The sketch shows that this is the field on the plateau north of Volcakoye (18918W/35091E); which is known. A few details on the field were previously reported by two other sources. Comment. For sketch of airfield, see innex. The sketch shows that this is the field in probably Staryo (saydada (18223W/35091E). Comment. For sketch of airfield, see innex. The sketch shows that the pre-tamily reported by two honorars and one large multi-story building were previously reported by two honorars and one large multi-story building were previously. COMMENTAL REPORT ONEROLUS CLASSIFICATION *		The state of the second	of like a more and of	Mas Just Room	No otto manda
2. One repair hanger, some temperary buildings, some splinterproof revenuents and femoci-in earth works, probably a fuel dump, and one radio east were of the western or northwestern edge of the field. Three buildings east of the field were seen from a distance. No construction work was in progress at the field. At a seen at the field in 1917, whereas in 1919, as many as 30 or 10 single-engine fighters, low-wing monoplanes with in-line engines, wide wings at the fuscilege and oval tips practiced firing, and three to five gliders were seen flying in the evening. If the weather was good, the fighters also made might flights with navigation lights ca. The number of sirerest making might formation flights usually did not exceed two or three, but once numbered four. The planes fired at each other and the fire from aircraft waspons could be seen. Joint missions with searchlights, AA or bomber units were not observed. See Domain. For sketch of airfield, see max. The sketch shows that this is the field on the plateau north of Voleskoye (18818/195909(E)).  Domaint. For sketch of airfield, see max. The sketch shows that this is the field is probably Starye (18818/195909(E)).  Domaint. For sketch of airfield, see max. The sketch shows that this is the field is probably Starye (28948(4(18923/M/35907(E))).  Common. The two homears and one large multi-story building were previously reported.  Common. The two homears and one large multi-story building were previously reported.  Common. The two homears and one large multi-story building were previously reported.  CLASSIFICATION SECRET/CONTROL/US  CLASSIFICATION SECRET.		north of the railroad terminus.	The Kelkhoz fie	dds surrounding	the field and function carth works, probably a field damp, and the field. Three buildings east of the field were seen from a distance. We construction work was in progress at the field.  3. About 9 to 12 single-engine fighters, some biplanes and small gliders were seen at the field in 1917, whereas in 1949, as many as 30 or he single-engine fighters, low-wing menoplanes with in-line engines, wide wings at the fuscing and oval tips practiced firing, and three to five gliders were seen flying in the evening. If the weather was good, the fighters also made night flights with navigation lights on. The number of aircraft making might for action flights usually did not exceed two or three, but once numbered four. The planes fired at each other and the first for actoraft weepons could be seen. Joint missions with searchlights, AA or bomber units were not observed.   Comment. For sketch of aircield, see max. The aketch shows that this is the field on the plateau north of Voloskoye (18018/18/18509/E).  Comment. For sketch of aircield, see max. The aketch shows that this is the field is probably Staryo Tayodaki (18023/M/3509/E).  Comment. The two handars and one large multi-story building were previously reported.  Comment. The two handars and one large multi-story building were previously reported.  COMPIDENT!  CLASSIFICATION  CONTROL/US  OFFICIALS CMLX  Starte #  New   N od the wostern or northwestern edge of the field. The field were seen from a distance. We construction work was in progress at the field were seen from a distance. We construction work was in progress at the field in 1917, whereas in 1919, as many as 30 or he single-engine fighters, low-wing monoplanes with in-line engines, wide wings at the fuscillage and eval tips practiced firing, and three to five gliders were seen flying in the evening. If the weather was good, the fighters also nade night flights with navigation lights on. The number of aircraft making night formation flights usually did not enced two or three, but once numbered four. The planes fired at each other and the fire from aircraft waspons could be seen. Joint missions with searchlights, An or bember units were not observed.  *	2.
at the field were seen from a distance. We constituted with the field. We seen at the field in 1917, whereas in 1919, as many as 30 or he single-engine fighters, low-wing monoplanes with in-line engines, wide wings at the fuse-lags and oval tips practiced firing, and three to five gliders were seen flying in the evening. If the weather was good, the fighters also made night flights with navigation lights ca. The number of wireraft making night for action flights usually did not exceed two or three, but once numbered four. The planes fired at each other and the fire from allocatif weapons could be seen. Joint missions with searchlights, AA or bomber units were not observed.   Comment. For sketch of airfield, see max. The sketch shows that this is the field on the plateau north of Voleskoye (h@C18*W/3509/18).  Comment. For sketch of airfield, see max. The sketch shows that this is the field on the plateau north of Voleskoye (h@C18*W/3509/18).  Comment. For sketch of airfield, see max. The sketch shows that this is the field on the plateau north of Voleskoye (h@C18*W/3509/18).  Comment. For sketch of airfield, see max. The sketch shows that this is the field on the plateau north of Voleskoye (h@C18*W/3509/18).  Comment. For sketch of airfield, see max. The sketch shows that this is the field is probably Starye Taydaki (h@C23*W/3509/18).  Comment. The type details on the field were previously reported by two previously reported.  Consent. The type harmans and one large multi-story building were previously reported.  CLASSIFICATION  CLASSIFICATIO		the second area as a parth and to the	odga of the licit	i invec ourrar	TED CHECK OF
3. About 9 to 12 single-engine fighters, some biplanes and small gliders wife seen at the field in 19h7, whereas in 19h9, as many as 30 or h0 single-engine fighters, low-wing monoplanes with in-line engines, wide wings at the fuscles; and oval tipes practiced firing, and three to five gliders were seen flying in the evening. If the weather was good, the fighters also made might flights with navigation lights on. The number of aircreft making night formation flights usually did not exceed two or three, but once numbered four. The planes fired at each other and the fire from aircreft waspons could be seen. Joint missions with searchlights, AA or bomber units were not observed.  Comment. For sketch of airfield, see imms. The sketch shows that this is the field on the plateau north of Voloskoye (18918/1/35009/E), which is known. A few details on the field were previously reported by the other sources. State # Comment. The two harmans and one large multi-story building were previously reported. The other data of the previously reported.		the field were seen from a dist	tance. We constm	iction work was	in progress seen at the Maid in 1917, whereas in Line engines, wide wings at the fusc- legters, low-wing monoplance with in-line engines, wide wings at the fusc- legt and oval tips practiced firing, and three to five gliders were seen flying in the evening. If the weather was good, the fighters also made night flights with navigation lights on. The number of sirereft making night for action flights usually did not enced two or three, but once numbered four. The planes fired at each other and the fire from adverage weepen could be seen. John missions with searchlights, An or bomber units were not observed.  Comment. For sketch of airfield, see innex. The sketch shows that This is the field on the plateau north of Voloskoye (h8c18:m/35c09(E)) Which is known. A few details on the field were previously reported by the other sources. But the field is probably Starye Layded (h3c23:m/35c07(E)). Comment. The two honders and one large multi-story building were previously reported.				n	12dame in co
figiters, low-wing monoplance with in-limit dighters which ware seem lag; and oval this practiced firing, and three to five gliders were seem flying in the evening. If the weather was good, the fighters also made night flights with navigation lights on. The number of aircraft making night for action flights usually did not exceed two or three, but once numbered four. The planes fired at each other and the fire from aircraft weapons could be seen. John missions with searchlights, AA or bomber units were not observed. The field see innex. The sketch shows that this is the field on the plateau north of Voloskove (h8cls:m/3509(E)), which is known. A few details on the field were previously reported by two other sources. as northeast of the field is probably Staryo Taydeki (h9c23:m/3507(E)). The willage entered on the sketch as northeast of the field is probably Staryo Taydeki (h9c23:m/3507(E)). The willage entered on the sketch as northeast of the field is probably Staryo Taydeki (h9c23:m/3507(E)). The comment. The two heariest and one large multi-story building were previously reported. The chart report were not mentioned proviously. CLASSIFICATION SECRET/CONTROL/US OFFICIALS GMLX 25X1. STATE # Now X x MSRB DISTRIBUTION Recument Ec	3,
A Comment. For sketch of airfield, see mnex. The sketch shows that		at the last without managing to	MARKE AND LANCE CHEST	1000 112000 112000	Oxfor
anight flights with navigation lights on. The history of three, but once numbered four. The planes fired at each other and the fire from aircraft weepons could be seen. Joint missions with searchlights, AA or bomber units were not observed.   Comment. For sketch of airclied, see innex. The sketch shows that this is the field on the plateau north of Voloskeye (16018*N/35009*E); which is known. A few details on the field were previously reported by two other sources.  Comment. The two handers and one large multi-story building were previously reported.  Comment. The two handers and one large multi-story building were previously reported.  Comment. The two handers and one large multi-story building were previously reported.  CLASSIFICATION SECURITY  The other data of the flass. The other data of the flass. The security is the flass. The flass of the flass. The flass of the flass. The flass of th		lage and oval tips practiced in	ring; and dures	. the fighters a	lso made formation flights usually did not exceed the fire from aircreft weapons could be seen. Joint missions with searchlights, AA or bomber units were not observed.  * Comment. For sketch of airfield, see innex. The sketch shows that this is the field on the plateau north of Voloskoye (48°18'M/35°09'E). Valich is known. A few details on the field were previously reported by two other sources. But an ortheast of the field is probably Staryo Taydaki (A8°23'M/35°07'E). Comment. The two hangers and one large multi-story building were previously reported. Comment. The two hangers and one large multi-story building were previously reported. Comment. The two hangers and one large multi-story building were previously reported. COMPIDENT!- CLASSIFICATION SECRET/CONTROL/US		· 1 03 t S.A. weith marriagning in	ligants on, and m	nations. Or any or ex-	A Trumprenone some Co
a could be seen. Joint missions with searchlights, in the bound white work not observed.  Comment. For sketch of airfield, see nnex. The sketch shows that this is the field on the plateau north of Voloskoye (1898 18/35°09'E); which is known. A few details on the field were previously reported by the other sources. as northeast of the field is probably Staryo Laydaki (180°23'N/35°07'N). Comment. The two handers and one large multi-story building were previously reported. The other data of the 25% previously reported. The other data of the 25% CONFIDENT!- CLASSIFICATION SECRET/CONTROL/US OFFICIALS CNLY 25X1 STATE # NUVY X NSRB DISTRIBUTION Necument No. No. Change in Class. 25X Distribution Secret No. No. Change in Class. 25X Distribution No.		formation flights usually did	not execed the or h other and the f	ire from siveral	t weepons
Comment. For sketch of airfield, see innex. The sketch shows that this is the field on the plateau north of Voloskoye (1898 M/35009 M); which is known. A few details on the field were previously reported by the other sources. as northeast of the field is probably Staryo Haydaki (18023 M/3507 M). Comment. The two handers and one large multi-story building were previously reported. Descriptionally reported. The other data of the 25X months are not mentioned proviously. COMPIDENT:		could be seen. Join's missions	with searchlight	s, AA or bomber	unl ts were
this is the field on the plateau north of volosacye (no the hybride) which is known. A few details on the field were previously reported by the The village entered on the sketch as northeast of the field is probably Staryo Eaydaki (h0023'M/35'07'M).  Common The two handers and one large multi-story building were previously reported. Details on the field were previously reported by the common the sketch as northeast of the sketch as northeast		not observed. ****
this is the field on the plateau north of volosacye (no the hybride) which is known. A few details on the field were previously reported by the The village entered on the sketch as northeast of the field is probably Staryo Eaydaki (h0023'M/35'07'M).  Common The two handers and one large multi-story building were previously reported. Details on the field were previously reported by the common the sketch as northeast of the sketch as northeast		The storage of	namifold see in	ex. The sketch	shows that which is known. A few details on the field were previously lepter to the skerch other sources. as northeast of the field is probably Staryo Laydaki (10°23°1/35°07°2).  Comment. The two hancers and one large multi-story building were previously reported. Compident report were not mentioned previously. CLASSIFICATION CLASSIFICATION OFFICIALS CNLY 25X1		Time the State on the plate	on north of Volos	MOVE THOUSE IN DE	1.07 m/3 as northeast of the field is probably Staryo Taydaki (18023*N/35*07*E).  Comment: The two handers and one large multi-story building were previously reported. Description of the field is probably Staryo Taydaki (18023*N/35*07*E). The other data of the 25 proviously.	1-0	which is known. A few details	on the field HOT	& DCGATODSTA TAY	OF GEOR OF OUR
COMMEND The two handers and one large multi-story selecting the 25) Commend The two handers and one large multi-story selecting the 25) Complete the continued proviously.	•	a service of the field is a	robably Starvo Ka	ydaki (1,0°23°11/3	350718)
CONFIDENT: CLASSIFICATION SECRET/CONTROL/US OFFICIALS GNLX 25X1 STATE # N/VY X NSRB DISTRIBUTION Resument Kg. 03 No Change in Class. 25X Elass. Changed To: IS S. C. Auth.: HE 70-2 A. Auth	Α	 Comment. The two handar	s and one large m
CLASSIFICATION SECRET/CONTROL/US CLASSIFICATION SECRET/CONTROL/US STATE # N/VY X NSRB DISTRIBUTION ARMY # X APR # X FBI Recument Kc. 03 No Change in Class.	•	presidually reported	med proviousily.	1130 00:102 0
CLASSIFICATION STATE # N/VY X NSRB DISTRIBUTION Recument Ke		Confiden	(4) 7 · · ·		(F) (A
Resument No. State # X X FBI		OLINO II TOTALI		OFFICIALS	CNUL 25X1/
Recument Kc. No Change in Class. Doulessived Elass. Changed To: IS S Auth.: HA 79-2	1		STRIBUTION
Elass. Changed To: TS S A Lath.: HA 19-2	ANDIT	ALSIM "ALE		Resument Ko
Elass. Changed To: TS S & Auth.: Will 19-2					^{$5.} □ 25X
Auth.: Hi 70-2					o: TS S (D)
Approved For Release 2002/08/08 : CIA-RDP82-00457R009600240005-7				Auth.: HR 19-2	H By: